

Become an SI Coach

The SI Program is an important part of student success at Lee College. SI Coaches are trained to assist students in a variety of academic and non-academic issues, are expected to work collaboratively with their peers, and are expected to promote a positive college climate. Additionally, the following qualifications are required:

Minimum Qualifications:

- Successful completion of SI course with an earned final grade of an A or B; must have a cumulative GPA of a 3.0 or higher
- Must exhibit patience and a positive attitude to establish an encouraging learning environment
- Must have good presentation and group facilitation skills
- Must have good communication and interpersonal skills to successfully perform in a multicultural and diverse environment
- Must possess excellent written and verbal communication skills
- Must be able to work flexible hours, including nights and weekends
- Must be able to accept feedback for development and growth
- Must be willing to seek assistance when needed
- Must be able to work independently to prepare study sessions
- Basic knowledge of Microsoft Office Applications
- Attend mandatory SI Instructor team meetings and training sessions

Responsibilities Include:

- Attend all class meetings of the assigned course and be a model student; this includes but is not limited to: taking accurate notes, being aware of all homework, reading assignments and projects, practicing active listening, assisting students with classroom group work, asking questions
- Facilitate two to three 60-minute group study sessions per week
- Accurately document SI session attendance
- Plan group activities, exam reviews, worksheets, and other activities to help facilitate student learning
- Provide additional SI sessions as necessary, such as during midterm or finals weeks
- Meet with the course professor weekly
- Report to the SI coordinator weekly
- Attend and participate in mandatory SI team meetings and training sessions
- Prepare for SI coordinator observations
- Assist with other programs as needed

A select group of students will be chosen through an application and interview process.

For more information on the hiring process, contact the SI Coordinator:

Hugo Gonzalez

Learning Support Services Manager

hgonzalez@lee.edu

832.556.5130

FIND A CAREER
My Next Move